Just a short note that Maksym Radziwill will be giving a hybrid talk on the quasi-Riemann hypothesis at Courant tomorrow.

This Thursday at 11am New York time there's a talk on the same topic by Valentin Bloomer.

I found it via https://researchseminars.org/ (which sadly does not list Radziwill's talk).

My mistake. Bloomer's talk is Thursday 5 November (and not tomorrow). Apologies.

Is the talk posted online somewhere?

PSA Maksym's talk is now posted on Courant's Youtube channel:

CC is entertaining. "Oiler and Obvious functions" (Euler and Mobius)
